Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I hope you had a wonderful Christmas and a great New Year celebration. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany – some call this little Christmas. Do you know the origin of the song “The Twelve Days of Christmas?” It is one of my favorite Christmas songs. Rita Cusack gifted me with the following, an explanation of the meaning behind the song.

I know you are familiar with the Christmas song, “The Twelve Days of Christmas.” To most, it's a delightful nonsense rhyme set to music. But it had quite a serious purpose when it was written. It is a good deal more than just a repetition melody with pretty phrases and a list of strange gifts. Catholics in England during the period 1558 to 1829, when parliament finally emancipated Catholics in England, were prohibited by law from any practice of their faith, private or public. It was a crime to be a Catholic.

“The Twelve Days of Christmas” was written in England as one of the catechism songs to help young Catholics learn the tenants of their faith, a kind of memory aid. To be caught with anything in writing indicating adherence to the Catholic faith could not only get you imprisoned, but you could also be hanged and then drawn and quartered.

The song's gifts are hidden meanings to the teachings of the faith. The true love mentioned in the song doesn't refer to an earthly suitor, it refers to God himself. The me who receives the presents refers to every baptized person. The partridge in the pear tree is Jesus Christ, the Son of God. In the song, Christ is symbolically presented as a mother partridge which feigns injury to decoy predators from her helpless nestlings, much in memory of the expression of Christ's sadness over the fate of Jerusalem: “Jerusalem! Jerusalem! How often would I have sheltered you under my wings, as a hen does her chicks, but you would not have it so...”

On the first day of Christmas, my true love gave to me a partridge in a pear tree – (Jesus Christ)

On the second day of Christmas, my true love gave to me two turtle doves – (Old and New Testament)

On the third day of Christmas, my true love gave to me three French hens (The three Virtues – Faith, Hope and Charity)

On the fourth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me four calling birds (The four Gospels – Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John)

On the fifth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me five golden rings. (The Pentateuch – the first five books of the Bible)

On the sixth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me six geese a-laying (The six days of creation)

On the seventh day of Christmas, my true love gave to me seven Swans a-swimming (The Seven Sacraments and the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit)

On the eighth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me eight maids a-milking (The eight beatitudes)

On the ninth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me nine ladies dancing (The nine fruits of the Holy Spirit)

On the tenth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me ten lords a-leaping (The Ten Commandments)

On the eleventh day of Christmas, my true love gave to me eleven pipers piping (The eleven faithful Apostles)

On the twelfth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me twelve drummers drumming (The twelve points of doctrine in the Apostles Creed)

You are in my thoughts and prayers each day. May God continue to bless us all.

Always in the Savior, Fr. Joe

Jan. 18	NO RE/OCIA—MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr.

2026 ADULT FORMATION Hebrews is "the greatest Christian sermon ever preached or written," according to New Testament scholar Daniel Harrington, SJ. Join Fr. Joe to explore this brilliant message of encouragement for six sessions beginning January 14, 2026, from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

This unique New Testament text presents Jesus as the great High Priest who simultaneously offers sacrifice to God and is himself the sacrifice. His compassion is rooted in his humanity, for he is like us in all things but sin. Harrington's accessible commentary helps us read and reflect on this beautiful Scripture text, giving us a renewed appreciation for the saving work of Jesus.

BUNCO in the new year = NEW START TIME! Friday, January 9, 2026. Arrival remains at 6:00 p.m. but PLAY begins at 6:30 p.m., at player request.
