Dear Brothers and Sisters:

I hope and pray you are all doing well. In the latest issue of The Word Among Us: Daily Meditations for January 1 – February 17, 2026 there was a wonderful reflection for Sunday, January 25. It was the final day of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The readings for that day were: Isaiah 8:23–9:3; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13–14/1 Corinthians 1:10–13, 17/Matthew 4:12–23. Perhaps you can take a little time today to read and reflect.

Is Christ divided? (1 Corinthians 1:13)

This past Sunday was the final day of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. For the week, Believers from virtually every Christian tradition have been praying for an end to all division among Christians: an end to the division between the Orthodox, Protestant and Catholic churches; an end to divisions between Orthodox, Protestant and Catholic believers, and an end to divisions within churches and parishes.

What a perfect reading, then, to close out the week! In it we get a glimpse of St. Paul's inspired insights into causes of division. When he learns that factions are threatening the church at Corinth, he goes right to the heart of the problem. "Is Christ divided?" he asks, almost sarcastically (1 Corinthians 1:13). In other words, how can you take sides like this when you were all baptized into the one Lord, Jesus Christ?

Paul understood that divisions happen when we focus too much on our own opinions and selfish desires and not enough on Jesus. We might favor one church leader over another (1 Corinthians 1:12). We might prefer our wealthy brothers and sisters over those who are struggling (1 Corinthians 11:18–22). Or we might be more impressed with those who seem spiritually gifted and less so with those who seem "ordinary" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

Cardinal Ranier Cantalamessa, former preacher to the papal household, once said, "If we will turn to Christ and go forward together toward him, we Christians will draw closer to each other." (Sermon, March 18, 2026). The closer we get to Jesus, the more he heals our wounds and leads us to repentance. And the more we are healed and forgiven, the easier it becomes to love and reconcile with each other.

No, Christ is not divided. So, let's all draw closer to him and ask him to make us one!

"Jesus, heal every division! Lord, bring us together!"

You are in my thoughts and prayers each day. Take care and be safe.

Always in the Savior, Fr. Joe

Laws for Fast and Abstinence during Lent

The law of abstinence obliges those 14 years of age and older not to eat meat. The law of fast obliges all those from ages 18 through 59 to refrain from eating between meals and to limit their eating to one full meal and two lighter meals for the day.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.
