

ROBO CALL JANUARY 5, 2023

Good afternoon. This is Fr. Joe, your pastor. I hope you are doing well.

We will have hospitality this weekend after the 5:00 p.m. Saturday and the 8:15 a.m. Sunday Masses. Join us for refreshments and fellowship.

We finally received our shipment of 2023 church calendars, and they will be available in the church this weekend. I ask that you take one per family, please. If there are any left, we will have them in the parish office.

If you signed up for the pictorial directory on Friday, January 6th or Saturday, January 7th, please come to St. Francis Hall through the breezeway entrance for your appointment.

There will be a simple funeral service for Theodore Blair on Friday, January 6th at 3:00 p.m., followed by internment in the Columbarium. All are welcome.

Long-time St. Joseph parishioner Bob McGraw passed away last week in Birmingham. There will be a funeral Mass at St. Joseph on Saturday, January 7th at 10:00 a.m. Bob will be buried at Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo. All are welcome.

We have new adult education offerings in January. Wednesday mornings, beginning on January 11th, from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., Tom Uss will present Letters of St. Paul 101. And on Thursday evenings, beginning on January 12th, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., I will present Take, Bless, Break, Share – Eucharistic Reflections. Please join us for either or both sessions.

I want to thank you for continuing your financial support of the parish.

For more information and up-dates, please visit the church website at www.saintjosephcc.com.

In the meantime, I continue to keep you in my prayers and thoughts each day. Take care and be safe.
